

Canberra AGS would like to announce a new series of short legal seminars over the next several months.

These seminars are of particular value and interest to ACT lawyers who hold current practising certificates and who must therefore comply with the ACT Law Society requirements under Mandatory Continuing Professional Development (MCPD). The seminars are of equal value to government lawyers generally and to staff of agencies and departments.

The venue for the seminars - except Cases of Distinction - is the Lionel Murphy Building, 50 Blackall Street, Barton.

The course offerings are as follows:

- 2009-2010 High Court Cases on Statutory Interpretation: *Alcan Alumina and Wicks & Sheehan and more
Monday, 30 August 2010, 4-6 pm (2 CPD units per Professional Skills)
- Major Procedural Fairness Decisions 2009-2010
Monday, 13 September 2010, 4-6 pm (2 CPD units per Professional Skills)
- Cases of Distinction - A Case Law Seminar on Recent Administrative Law Decisions
Friday, 22 October 2010 at the National Portrait Gallery, 9-12.30 pm (3 CPD units per Professional Skills)
- Coming Soon: the Australian Privacy Principles
Thursday, 18 November 2010, 4-6 pm (2 CPD units per Professional Skills)

The course fee for Cases of Distinction is $295.00 (GST inclusive) per person. The cost for any of the other three seminars is $195.00 (GST inclusive) per person.
