

Administrative Law Forum 2019

Reasoning the unreasonable and other decision-making quandaries

7 March 2019 | Hyatt Hotel, Canberra

Administrative law is central to the functioning of the Australian Government. This forum will bring you up to date with the latest developments in administrative law and the practical implications for Commonwealth decision-makers and lawyers.

Keynote speaker:

The Hon Justice Thomas President of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal and Judge of the Federal Court of Australia

Guest presentation:

When does denial of fairness matter?

Dr Matthew Groves Professor of Law, Deakin Law School and general editor of the Australian Journal of Administrative Law

AGS presentations:

- review of decisions – illogicality, irrationality and unreasonableness
- an applicant's right to silence in tribunal proceedings
- Public Interest Disclosure Act 2013 – tricky administrative law issues
- General Data Protection Regulation
- delegations and authorisations in context of MOG changes
- G v Minister for Immigration and Border Protection [2018] FCA 1229: Drake revisited
- decisions subject to AAT review – an NDIS perspective
- hypothetical: choose your administrative law adventure.

FORUM DETAILS

Date Thursday 7 March 2019

Time 9 am – 4.15 pm
(arrival from 8.30 am)

Venue Hyatt Hotel
Commonwealth Avenue
Canberra

Cost $685 (GST inclusive)

Register and pay

> Online registration closes
Friday 22 February 2019

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

CPD 5 points

Enquiries Sally MacGregor
rsvp@ags.gov.au | T 02 6253 7221

Who should attend?

- Public sector decision-makers and administrators
- Public sector lawyers and officers who assist and advise key decision-makers and administrators
- Legislative drafters.