

Employment Law Forum 2019

16 October | Hotel Realm, Canberra

New frontiers

Grab your rucksack and join AGS employment law experts on an exploration of the slippery slopes and shifting sands of the modern-day employment landscape.

- 20/20 hindsight – 2020 insight
Tom Howe PSM QC draws on some reflections on his vast experience in practicing in HR matters over 3 decades to offer his insight and practical tips for legal and HR practitioners in 2020.
- #noneofyourbusiness ... an employer's interest in their employees' social media lives – the Banerji case
- Enterprise bargaining
- Flexible working conditions and working from home
- Why is that term in the Deed and why do we need it?
- Everything you need to know about ETPs and FBT but were too afraid to ask
- How do we manage contractors working in agencies differently to employees?
- Inherent requirements, reasonable adjustments and reassignment of duties
- Litigation round up – showcasing some of the more interesting recent employment decisions.

This forum is designed specifically for public sector human resource managers and their legal advisers.

FORUM DETAILS

Date Wednesday 16 October

Time 9 am – 4 pm (arrival from 8.30 am)
The forum will be followed by refreshments.

Venue Hotel Realm
18 National Circuit, Barton
Canberra

Cost $595 (GST inclusive)

CPD 5 points

Register and pay

> Online registration closes
Wednesday 9 October 2019

[CLICK HERE
TO REGISTER](#)

Enquiries Tiff Brown

rsvp@ags.gov.au | T 02 6253 7246