

FOI and Privacy Forum 2019

17 May 2019 | QT Canberra

This forum is an opportunity for anyone with a role in or passion for freedom of information (FOI) or privacy compliance in a Commonwealth agency to grow their knowledge and ensure they are across the latest developments.

Hear about emerging issues and future trends in FOI and privacy from those at the cutting edge of FOI and privacy law and practice. The current state of play under Commonwealth FOI and privacy laws will be examined, and there will be a focus on the interplay between FOI, privacy and other Commonwealth laws and meeting legal and policy objectives.

Speakers will include:

- Angelene Falk Australian Information Commissioner
- Sven Bluemmel Victorian Information Commissioner
- AGS's leading FOI and privacy experts including Justin Hyland, Justin Davidson, Tara McNeilly, Elena Arduca, Melissa Gangemi, Charine Bennett and Louise Futol.

FORUM DETAILS

Date Friday 17 May 2019

Time 9 am – 4.10 pm
(arrival from 8.30 am)

Venue QT Canberra
1 London Circuit, City

Cost $685 (GST inclusive)

Register and pay

> Online registration closes
Wednesday 8 May

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

CPD 5 points

Enquiries Sally MacGregor
rsvp@ags.gov.au | T 02 6253 7221

Come along to hear about:

- data breach notification and the Australian Government Agencies Privacy Code – one year on
- data analytics and de-identification – challenges and opportunities
- the European Union's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)
- When is use and disclosure of personal information impliedly authorised?
- Public Interest Disclosures – protecting privacy, handling FOI requests
- the FOI Act confidentiality exemption (s 45)
- FOI release of decision-maker names
- implications of recent FOI and privacy decisions
- FOI panel discussion – contemporary challenges and issues.

AGS forums are provided specifically for Australian Government employees.